EVENT REPORT

Name of the event	Work-Life Balance
Date and time	24 th November, 2016, 10:00 AM
Location	AV Hall, Ground Floor, Central Library
Speaker	Dr Chitra Chakravarty, Professor and Head, Department of Oral Surgery, Navodaya Dental College
Number of persons attended	78
Summary	The objective of organizing this event was to encourage the audience to have a good balance between life and work or education and how important it is to balance both of them. The event began with an invocation song, followed by welcome address to the gathering and the speaker. This was followed by lamp lighting and the achievements of speaker were introduced. The speaker then began saying that every one's desire to succeed professionally can push us to set aside our own well-being but creating a harmonious balance or integration between life and profession is critical, though, to improve not only our physical, emotional and mental well-being, but it's also important for our career. The speaker expressed that work-life balance is less about dividing the hours in your day evenly between career or profession and personal life and, instead, is more about having the flexibility to get things done in your professional life while still having time and energy to enjoy your personal life. The speaker encouraged the audience to not leave back their personal life as they progress in their career. The event concluded by vote of thanks and High tea.

EVENT REPORT

Name of the event	Gender-Based Violence
Date and time	20 th January, 2017 at 10:00 AM
Location	AV Hall, Ground Floor, Central Library
Speaker	Dr Ratnaprabha, Department of Anatomy, Navodaya Medical College
Number of persons attended	66
Summary	The event objective was to improve the awareness of the participants regarding gender-based violence and how to report it and what are the various affects of it on women and the society. The event began with invocation song and welcome address, followed by lamp lighting. Then the speaker was introduced to the audience and the talk commenced. The speaker expressed that over the past few decades, gender-based violence has increasingly come to be recognized as the serious problem at the international level, not only for women but also for the attainment of equality, development, and peace. It also is a profound health problem, sapping women's energy, compromising their physical health, and eroding their self-esteem. In addition to causing injury, violence increases women's long-term risk of a number of other health problems, including chronic pain, physical disability, drug and alcohol abuse and depression. She also spoke about the right way of reporting it. The talk was followed by vote of thanks and high tea.

Name of the event	Role Models
Date and time	8 th April 2017, 10:00 AM
Location	AV Hall, Ground Floor, Central Library
Speaker	Dr Snehalatha Patil, Department of Conservative & Endodontics, Navodaya Dental College
Number of persons attended	102
Summary	The event began with the invocation song. Then the welcome address was given, welcoming the speaker and the audience then there was lamp lighting ceremony followed by highlighting the interests of the speaker about the current topic. The speaker then started the talk by saying that the women we admire are a diverse group who share some of our core values and work to create unity and equality. Our female role models take "women supporting women" very seriously. Lifting women up and encouraging each other to reach their fullest potential is the only way we can make change. Reaching out to women can make a huge difference, and the women we admire are constantly lifting others up. A female role model does not have to be a celebrity. She is any woman you look up to. She is a woman who makes a difference, whether it is in the little things she does in her everyday life or the grand gestures made in the public eye. Being a female role model requires a confidence not rooted solely in career or status, but in seeing the value in herself. This quality is exactly why female role models are so important. The talk was followed by vote of thanks and then concluded with a High tea.
